Ever-evolving heritage

Le Mans ©M.Oudoux

Having been at the centre of influence in medieval times and an innovative hub during the 19th and 20th centuries, La Sarthe boasts a very rich heritage, accessible to all. Over the past few years, several cultural sectors have emerged and further boosted the region's appeal.

In the footsteps of the Plantagenêts

Cité Plantagenêt, Le Mans ©M.Oudoux

A LEAP BACK IN TIME IN THE CITÉ PLANTAGENÊT

Spanning an area of around 15 hectares, the old town is the site of a hundred or so timber-framed houses, the oldest of which date back to the 15th century. A number of sculpted cornice pillars and engraved lintels tell the story of the town's commercial activity and perpetuate certain legends. The cathedral of Saint Julien, whose spire rises like a beacon high above the town, provides the link between Romanesque and Gothic architectures. Make sure you go along and see the outstanding Gallo-Roman wall, built in the third and fourth centuries, at the foot of the old town.

BERENGARIA OF NAVARRA'S

ABBEY: L'ÉPAU ROYAL ABBEY

Wife of Richard the Lionheart, Berengaria of Navarra decided to found a large Cistercian abbey, L'Épau Royal Abbey, in 1229. It is now one of the most significant cultural centres in La Sarthe and each year hosts exhibitions, photographic walks in its gardens, classical and contemporary music festivals, and light-and-sound shows at the end of the year. There is also a pleasant vegetable garden. Following the example of the Cistercian monks who were self-sufficient, the gardens supply fresh produce for the restaurant, the Café des Moines, including herbs, vegetables, fruit, eggs and even honey.

Keen for something new? Here are a few ideas for a quirky kind of stay not too far from home!

A quirky choice

UN MANOIR DIGNE D'UN ROMAN D'AGATHA CHRISTIE : LE MANOIR DE LA MASSONNIÈRE

Cinq chambres d'hôtes et un gîte à l'intérieur totalement redécoré : papiers peints panoramiques fleuris, peinture pastel, tout est fait pour retrouver l'ambiance du jardin à l'intérieur des chambres et des espaces communs. Autour du vieux manoir, les jardins ont été dessinés au 20^e siècle : petit jardin de vivaces, jardin à la française, potager, roseraie, jardin bouquetier et arboretum forment une alliance poétique entre pierre et végétal !

COSY CABINS ON THE WATER WITH THE CABANES DU PLESSIS

"La Cachette", "L'Observatoire"... evocative names for these cabins on a large lake in the middle of the forest. They are perched on stilts beside the shore. The large terrace overlooking the water is ideal for fishing. And if you're feeling a bit chilly, you can curl up inside by the wood-burning stove. "La Toue cabanée", the other cabin, can only be reached by boat, as it floats in the middle of the lake. There is wood everywhere while the large picture windows offer great views of the surrounding flora and fauna.

A LEAP INTO PSYCHEDELIA - AT THE GÎTE DU MISFON

The Misfon gîte (6 separate rooms) whisks you back to the 70s with its teak sideboards, armchairs covered in fluffy blankets, black and white tiles, shaggy rugs and vinyl records.

Sip on a drink beside the (heated) pool and gather round the large table with its funky styling for a joyful blast from the past.

UN COCON AU BORD DE L'EAU

AU MOULIN DE BELLE QUEUE

Chaque espace a été revisité avec une fusion élégante d'époques, mêlant des pièces contemporaines à des antiquités. L'intérieur, avec son salon chaleureux et ses six chambres décorées avec soin, offre une atmosphère accueillante. L'eau du bief s'écoulant paisiblement le long de la demeure vous invite à la relaxation.
